

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WHITE EAGLE PROPERTY GROUP CONTINUES ITS NORTH CAROLINA GROWTH

May 23, 2019

Monsey, NY – May 23, 2019 – White Eagle Property Group, one of the country’s leading privately held multi-family owners and operators, announced it has acquired York Ridge Apartments located in Charlotte, North Carolina. The property will soon be rebranded as Avenues at Steele Creek.

York Ridge represents yet another multi-family development for White Eagle in its North Carolina portfolio with the strategy in mind, of upgrading apartments in a well-located suburb of Charlotte with a high-quality community, to create a new and fresh living life style.

“We saw an opportunity to continue the growth of the area, by improving resident amenities, creating a new living experience for our residents in an already existing beautiful area of Charlotte” said, Jeffrey M. Weiskopf, Chairman and CEO of White Eagle Property Group.

“We believe in the long-term outlook for this area in general, and this specific community in particular” added chief Operating Officer, Abe Spitz.

York Ridge Apartments is a 240-unit apartment complex with two- and three-story buildings, beautifully landscaped, containing one, two and soon to be three-bedroom apartments to fit every lifestyle. It is centrally located near to downtown Charlotte, easy access to major highways and near diversified and new shopping centers and retail.

The plan will be to upgrade all amenities including apartments, pool areas, fitness center, as well as energy efficient green initiatives across the community.